Step into a place steeped in history and heritage.
For the last 250 years, Stauntons On The Green has been called home by some of Ireland’s most famous movers and shakers.

John Henry Newman, founder of the Catholic University of Ireland; the politician Henry Grattan, famous for winning Irish parliamentary independence; and the poet Gerard Manley Hopkins, who wrote many of his most famous sonnets right here.

When you stay at Stauntons On The Green, you’re sleeping in shadows of the famous.

After a day spent soaking up the atmosphere and creativity of Dublin City, let your mind wander and dream deeply.

Here in the heart of Dublin with views that look right on to St. Stephen’s Green, you’re in the perfect place to make big plans and do great things.
An oasis of calm right in the heart of the city.
Perfectly placed in the heart of Georgian Dublin.

St. Stephen’s Green, Trinity College, the beautifully manicured Iveagh Gardens, the National Concert Hall, the National Museum of Ireland, the National Gallery and the best shopping, boutiques, studios, cafés, bars and restaurants...

..here at Stauntons On The Green, you’ve got the very best of Dublin right on your doorstep.
If these walls could talk they’d have rich tales to tell.
City centre style, comfort and centuries of character.

At Stauntons On The Green, you’ll enjoy a choice of spacious well appointed rooms all decorated with timeless elegance and a made-to-order breakfast to start your day.

Delight in wonderful views that stretch across St. Stephen’s Green to our front or the beautiful Iveagh Gardens at our rear.

Relax with friendly service and a team who will happily share all the best things to see, do and enjoy.
83 St. Stephens Green Sth, Dublin D02 HD86