

48 Hours in Dublin

Little Museum of Dublin

The Little Museum of Dublin, a charming museum overlooking St. Stephen's Green that tells the city's story through the eyes of its people. Packed with fascinating artefacts, quirky memorabilia and engaging guided tours, it's the perfect introduction to Dublin's history, culture and character in under an hour.

Taste of Dublin

If you're visiting Dublin in June, don't miss Taste of Dublin in Merrion Square. This annual food festival brings together the city's top chefs, restaurants and artisan producers for a weekend of delicious dishes, live cooking demonstrations and expertly crafted drinks in one of Dublin's most beautiful parks.

Guinness Storehouse

Journey through the history of Ireland's most famous stout across seven interactive floors before finishing with a perfectly poured pint in the Gravity Bar, where panoramic views stretch across the Dublin skyline. Followed by a trip to Brazen Head, Ireland's oldest pub.

Vintage Tea Trips

See Dublin from a different perspective with an afternoon tea tour. Enjoy sweet treats, savoury bites and tea as you travel past the city's iconic landmarks aboard a vintage double-decker bus.

Georgian Dublin Walking Tour

Discover the elegance of Georgian Dublin on a guided walking tour. Wander through grand squares, historic streets and architectural gems while uncovering the stories behind the city's most iconic neighbourhoods.

The Wolfhound Experience

Take a stroll through St. Stephen's Green with a gentle Irish Wolfhound by your side. This unique experience combines Dublin's beautiful city park with the chance to meet one of Ireland's most iconic native dog breeds.

DART to Dublin's Seaside Gems

Hop on the DART for a scenic coastal journey through Dublin Bay. Stop to explore the charming seaside towns of Dún Laoghaire, Dalkey and Bray, where stunning views, cliff walks and cosy cafés await.

A Stroll Along the Grand Canal

Escape the city's bustle with a peaceful walk along Dublin's picturesque Grand Canal. Lined with leafy paths, colourful houseboats and charming cafés, it's the perfect spot to slow down and experience a quieter side of the city.

